Declares He Has No Idea of Withdrawing and Is Hopeful of Victory.

STAY IN THE RACE

Meutenant-Governor Jeseph E. Willard, of Fairfax, authorizes the statement that there is absolutely no foundation for story recently printed to the effect that he might withdraw from the contest for the Democratic nomination for Governor in the primaries to be held next year.

Captain Willard made his denial emphatic as language would express it, and added: "You may say that I am a candidate for the honor, according to my former announcement, and will continue to be until my party shall have selected to be until my party shall have selected their nominee."

This personal statement from Captain Willard sets at rest all possible speculation on the subject, and will have the effect of putling his friends to work in his interest, with renewed vicor and determination. But few, if apy, of Captain Willard's supporters in this city were willing to believe that, he ever contemplated retiring from the race under any conditions, and now that he has spoken out so emphatically in denial of the story, they are stimulated to work but the harder for the success of their favoratie.

the harder for the success of their layerlie.

Cantain, Willard has always had great strength in this city and section, and those who are supparting his claims here are enthusiastic concerning his prospects of success.

While he is a decided favorite with the younger element of the party here, it may be said in truth that his popularity is confined to no class, but that he stands well with every element of the Democracy.
Captain Willard himself feels much encouraged at the outlook, and those who are close to him in this city know that he is constantly in receipt of the most flattering assurances of support from all over the State.

FESTIMITIES MARRED.

"The Odd Fellows festivities in opening the new hall Friday night were temporarily marred by Mr. Jerry Carson suffering a severe attack of cramp coic.
